NOTE: Keep in mind there are tons of variations on actor resumes (depending on your region/market/niche) but this template will be a great starting point for most actors- no matter how you fit in the business. If you are just starting out- use what you have even if it's just school/community projects and training.

And while you #DoTheWork reference these 4 videos from my TikTok for further clarification:
(CLICK ON EACH IMAGE TO WATCH)

First Name, Last Name
Union Affiliations
Contact Info (Email/Website/Phone)

Hair   Weight
Eyes   Height
Vocal Range*: Mezzo Soprano (F3-Bb5)
Weight is optional & Vocal Range is only for musical theatre

FILM
Film Title   Supporting   Prod Company/Director
                        (For Film the only roles you write are Supporting or Lead)
        Never put extra work on a resume unless it's truly the only credit you have

TELEVISION
Show Title   Type of role*   Network/Director
            *(For TV the only roles you write are Co-Star, Guest Star, Recurring, Series Regular)
(New media can be combined w/TV esp if just starting- production company or platform/director)

NEW MEDIA
Show Title   Type of role*   Platform/Director
                    *(Co-Star, Guest Star, Recurring, Series Regular)

THEATRE
Play Title   Name of Character you Played   Name of Theatre or Director if known
            (If the play is an original or lesser known you can put (Lead or supporting) next to it)

COMMERCIALS/PRINT   List upon request

TRAINING
NAME OF MOST WELL KNOWN OR BIGGEST DEGREE (no years or dates)
List your most recent or reputable class 1st. Then include other Classes/Teachers you've studied with
Type of Class   Acting Studio   City

SPECIAL SKILLS
Languages, passport status (if you're and international actor put your citizenship status), dialects (must be able to really do them), driving skills (stick/automatic), dance skills, Fun Facts that may be conversation starters or make you stand out
*REMEMBER YOUR RESUME MUST BE 8 X 10